Advice From New York
Yacht Club.

Boston, December 18.—Sir Thomas
Lipton said definitely at the CopleyFlaza yesterday that he is going to challenge for the America's Cup, but he will say no more until he hears from the New York Yacht Club.

When he arrived here night before last the Irish yachisman said he was willing to enter a cup yacht. To-day he came out with the definite declaration that he is to make still another try for the famous trophy. He further definite declaration that he is to make still another try for the famous trophy. He further declared that, in even he is able to conclude satisfactory arrangements with the New York Yacht Club, he will name his boat Shamrook.

It is probable that there is nothing reputation for himself, besides annex quite so potent, or so forcibly a part of the happenings in the to-morrows lars mean very little, maybe, but seedings in the to-morrows lars mean very little, maybe, but seedings in the to-morrows lars mean very little, maybe, but seedings have manned that he is manned that he opportunity of sttending college of that life in a world built gas how Tyrus maintains that he will get $15,000 from Frank Navin for his services next season or not play, there declines cannot know.
